

Citizens Source Water Protection Committee to meet Nov. 2 in Dover

DOVER – The Source Water Protection Citizens and Technical Advisory Committee (CTAC) of the DNREC-led Source Water Assessment and Protection Program will meet from 9 a.m. to noon Wednesday, Nov. 2 in Conference Room 220 of the Kent County Administrative Offices at 555 South Bay Road, Dover, DE 19901.

The agenda includes the following items:

- An update on recent source water projects and initiatives in Delaware;
- A presentation by Scott Andres of the Delaware Geological Survey on Delaware's Ground Water Monitoring Network;
- A presentation from attorney Max B. Walton of the law firm Connolly Gallagher LLP on wellhead protection; and
- A presentation by Jennifer Adkins of the Partnership for the Delaware Estuary on the Schuylkill Action Network, a source water collaborative in southeastern Pennsylvania.

Delaware's Source Water Assessment Plan was approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in October 1999. The program is charged with delineating source water areas around all sources of public drinking water in the state, identifying all existing and potential sources of contamination within those areas and making the information available to the public. The Source Water Protection Law of 2001 maintains the CTAC as an advisory committee to the Secretary of DNREC on the implementation of the Source Water Assessment Plan and closely related matters.
